SALSA PARTY “CELEBRATING DIVERSITY” IN BOSTON

Washington, D.C. – The Board of Directors of The Latino Coalition (TLC) announced today their “Salsa Party” will be held on Wednesday, July 28th in Boston during the Democratic National Convention to celebrate the diversity in the Democratic Party and honor some of their rising stars. The event will be held from 10:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. at The Roxy, located at 279 Tremont.

The highlight of the event will be a performance by the “Salsa Princess” La India and her orchestra. Merengue star Gisselle will also perform at this function.

Congressman Luis Gutierrez will serve as the evening’s emcee and will be honored for his efforts on behalf of Latinos across the country. Other honorees include: Illinois Governor Rod Blagojevich, Congressman Artur Davis, Congressman Raul Grijalva, Congressman Mike Honda, Illinois State Senator Barack Obama, Colorado Attorney General Ken Salazar, Congressman David Scott and Congresswoman Nydia Velazquez.

“This will be a fun memorable celebration to highlight the diversity in the Democratic Party,” said TLC President Robert G. de Posada. “The performances of La India and Gisselle will guarantee that that this celebration will be one of the most exciting events during the Democratic National Convention.”

The Latino Coalition will host a similar event in New York on August 31st at the Rainbow Room during the Republican National Convention. For security reasons, media credentials and pre-registration will be required. For more information, please call Martha Lozada at 202-546-0008.
